ST. James's, March 5. The following Association and Addreſs have been preſented to His Majeſty.

An Aſſociation of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Mayor, Juſtices of the Peace, Aldermen, Common-Council, Clergy, Gentlemen, and others His Majeſty's Subjects of the Town and County of Haverford-Weſt. Preſented to His Majeſty by Brigadier Ferrers, in the Abſence of John Barlow, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace of the County of Aberdeen. Preſented to His Majeſty by Collonel Middleton, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Berkeley.

Which Aſſociation and Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Hague, March 3. The Treaty for renewing the Alliances between Great-Britain and this Republick, concluded at Weſtminſter the $\frac{6}{17}$ of laſt Month, having been tranſmitted hither, is according to the uſual Forms ſent to the reſpective Provinces for their Conſent to its being ratified by the States General. On the 29th paſt, the Turkiſh Aga who has been here ſome time ſolliciting Satisfaction for a Ship taken about 5 Years ago by a Zealand-Privateer, having deſired to make a Viſit to the Britiſh Miniſter Mr. Horatio Walpole, was prevented by that Miniſter: The Aga received and entertained him ſuitably to his Character. Yeſterday the Counts Schaesberg and Efferen, Miniſters of the Elector Palatine, had a Conference with the Deputies of the States General for foreign Affairs, and communicated to them His Electoral Highneſs's Anſwer to the Terms on which their High Mightineſſes had propoſed to conſent to his Imperial Majeſty's Ceſſion of Limburg to him.

Edinburgh, Feb. 28. The Peers of Scotland having aſſembled this Day at Holy-Rood-Houſe, purſuant to His Majeſty's Proclamation dated the 6th of laſt Month, have choſen the Earl of Haddingtoun to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to Sit and Vote in the Houſe of Peers of the preſent Parliament of Great-Britain, in the Room of the Marquiſs of Tweedale Deceaſed. The Duke of Argyll having diſpoſed the Troops under his Command, into ſuch Quarters as are moſt proper for hindring the diſperſed Remains of the Rebels from drawing together again in any Number, is come hither: And on the Firſt of next Month His Grace will ſet out for London. Letters from Fort-William of the 19th Inſtant give an Account, that the Forces of the Rebels being all diſperſed, the Earls Marſhal, Linlithgow, Southesk, Viſcount Kilſyth, Lord Tinmouth, and others of the Heads of them, came the Night before to Achinacarick, the Houſe of Cameron of Locheel, Nine Miles from Fort-William, there to conſult which way to take to avoid falling into the Hands of the King's Troops.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Treaſury having appointed Money for the paying of Half-Pay to the Sea-Officers to the 30th of June 1715, according to His Majeſty's Eſtabliſhment in that Behalf, Theſe are to give Notice, that the ſaid Payments will begin to be made at the Treaſurer of the Navy's-Office in Broad-Street, on Thurſday the 15th of this Inſtant March, that all Perſons concern'd may then and there attend to receive what ſhall become Payable to them; And not only bring with them the Affidavits required touching their having not enjoyed the Benefit of any Publick Employment whatſoever, either at Sea, or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their ſaid Half-Pay, but alſo produce Certificates that they have Subſcribed to the Teſt, and taken the Oaths required by the Act of this preſent Seſſions of Parliament.
